Morning Cable Report

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Andrew Carnegie has determined to withdraw from all personal responsibility in connection with his many benefactions, which have reached such gigantic proportions that it is more than one can do to properly direct them.

Yesterday Mr. Carnegie donated $25,000,000 to the Carnegie Corporation, with headquarters in this city, for the building of libraries, conduct of educational work, hero fund and other benefactions of the kind.

Altogether Mr. Carnegie's donations for various purposes to date are $215,000,000, a startling sum. Many of the benefactions are continuous expenditures and these will hereafter be under the supervision of the Carnegie Corporation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Lee McClung, secretary of the treasury, has issued a report to the effect that the recent tariff discussion has caused a falling off in customs receipts equal to nineteen millions of dollars.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11.—The total registration for this city is now placed at 191,941, of which number 82,295 names are those of women.

It is expected that a considerable number of duplications on the great register will be discovered, due to ignorance of the registration laws.

BUSINESS CLINGS TO MORGAN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The residential exclusiveness which J. P. Morgan has spent large sums to maintain in the immediate neighborhood of his Madison avenue home, is at last to yield to business invasion. Immediately opposite Morgan's big brownstone house on the northeast corner of Thirty-sixth street, a large sign displayed today advertising the four-story Heinze residence "to rent for business purposes."

THE WORKER MUST BE WELL

In these days of sharp competition everyone who works should be keyed up to the highest pitch of efficiency. The rewards of business life go to the clearest thinkers, to the men and women who know and do things better than other people.

But who can do his best work when the health is impaired, when the appetite fails to demand the food necessary to sustain the body, when strength is lacking and ambition gone? Surely the part of wisdom is to begin at once to build up the body to its normal condition and this may be done more certainly by the use of

Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Extract

than any other medicine. It checks hacking coughs, sharpens the appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, restores flesh to the emaciated, and renews health and vigor. It is so agreeable to the taste that its regular use is a pleasure. Get it at your druggist's and be sure you get STEARNS'—the genuine.

A LITTLE QUIET TALK ABOUT OUR CONTEST

Some persons say that they never read "display ads"—the kind of advertising that uses big type and occupies anywhere from a few inches to a page of space in a newspaper. The experience of the biggest advertisers in the country—the successful dry goods and department stores, for example—doesn't bear out this theory; but at all events if you are one of this class, we are going to give you no excuse for not knowing all about The Star's big $3000 subscription contest, but will give you the facts right now in this matter-of-fact, simple "reading-matter" style.

In the first place the contest has just nicely started. There are in all 111 persons entered in the race, having been regularly nominated by friends who have thus indicated a willingness to get in and help their favorites.

A Generous Offer.

That the plan is the most liberal that has ever been offered by a paper in Hawaii is evidenced by the fact that the management of The Star has set aside over $3000 to provide for prizes for those who, by a little earnest work among their friends, help to put The Star into every home in the Territory in which a newspaper is read.

Here is a list of the prizes which have already been decided upon, and others are to be announced later. When you read this list, just think as you go along what a really generous offer it is, and how it would be possible to earn money any easier. Here they are—

First—$750 cash.

Second—Fine building lot in Kaimuki.

Third—Savings bank account of $300 cash.

Fourth—Ticket to Coast and return, with pocket money.

Fifth—Selection of books, $150.

Sixth—Trip and week at volcano.

Seventh—Furniture order, $75.

Eighth—Music order, $50.

Ninth—Hardware order, $50.

Tenth—Jewelry order, $50.

These prizes are open to every contestant, but besides these there is one each exclusively for each of the outside islands, as follows:

Eleventh—Trip from Hilo, week in Honolulu and return.

Twelfth—Trip from West Hawaii, week in Honolulu, and return.

Thirteenth—Trip from Maui, week in Honolulu, and return.

Fourteenth—Trip from Kauai, week in Honolulu, and return.

These last four represent more than simply the steamer fare. They include also first-class hotel accommodation for a week, and a lot of entertaining and sightseeing without cost to the lucky contestant.

Why Vote Getting Is Easy.

It isn't hard to get subscriptions for The Star. The paper is so well and favorably known that most persons are glad to take it if their attention is simply called to the matter, or to renew their subscription often for several years for the sake of helping a friend who is working for a prize. The reason for this is that The Star has come to be known as not only the largest paper printed in the islands, but its superior qualities as a real newspaper—a paper that gives the new just as it occurs—makes it the one paper which appeals to the man or woman who reads. Its strong, virile and independent editorial comment on matters affecting the public welfare, written by Walter G. Smith, a man who has a national reputation as a journalist, gives The Star a dignity and tone which no other local paper can have, and naturally commends itself to the intelligent class of readers. It isn't necessary to mention the many other features of The Star at this time, such as its daily society page, sports page, commercial and business page, daily interviews with prominent people, the open forum for expression of individual opinion by its readers, to convince you who already know the paper, that it possesses all the attributes which make the people want, and read it, and subscribe for it.

Still Time to Enter.

The list of contestants isn't complete, for new names are coming in daily. It is by no means too late to enter yourself or urge a friend to enter. And after reading the foregoing, don't you believe it is worth while?

There has been no count of the votes secured by the various contestants as yet, but immediately after the records up to and including next Saturday, (November 18) are received, the first count will be made.

and announced. The result will be interesting. Better try it yourself—just as a little piece of good business that you can work on the side—or if you can't, you know some one who can, and who would appreciate your help.

If you are interested, try to have an interview with the Contest Manager, or write for information about the matter.

PEOPLE OF GUAM SHOWN HOW TO RAISE OWN FOOD

WASHINGTON, October 28.—That the inhabitants of Guam, a far-away island possession of the United States, can grow American vegetables and raise American horses, cattle, hogs and poultry on the island has been successfully demonstrated by the Department of Agriculture, which has established an experiment station on the island.

Instead of getting all of their fresh meat from San Francisco, 5500 miles away, Dr. Evans is satisfied that the people of Guam will be able to supply their own needs in the future.

SHERMAN TO WEAR A $7 SUIT AT REPUBLICAN RALLY

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 28.—It is announced that when Vice-President Sherman appears at Camden, N. J., next Wednesday evening as the chief speaker at a rally in support of William J. Browning, Republican candidate for congress, to succeed the late Henry C. Loudenslager, he will wear a specially built suit of woolen clothes to illustrate his speech on the tariff.

It is announced that the suit of clothes Sherman will wear is made of cloth which he followed through a New Jersey woolen mill from raw wool to the finished fabric. He spent a day in the mill early this week watching the manufacture of cloth, and a tailor is now completing the suit, the cost of which will be $7.
